Chapter 6

VDF Reserve History and Clarification

6-1: VDF Reserve and Retired List Historic Lineage:

On 3 March 1988 MG E. Gordon Stump, the Michigan Adjutant General, began the process of suspending the activities of the Michigan Emergency Volunteers and directed in his letter dated 14 August 1998 that his reorganization was effective on 1 October 1998. This action by the Adjutant General established a limited operation to the MEV commander, chief of staff and four task force units of about twelve people total. MG Stump also invited all other members to enter their name on a "state volunteer personnel data base" which essentially was a reserve list. The first VDF Personnel Order 001 dated 1 February 2005 included 18 individuals and two individuals thereon were immediately assigned to the initial VDF Reserve as directed by the VDF Commander.

6-2: VDF Reserve and Retired List Clarification:

Since 1 February 2005 the Reserve and Retired List has expanded and VDF now recognizes three groups of inactive or former members who have an inactive or support role regarding the organization's future. These individuals are assigned in the following three categories of presently inactive, willingness to continue limited involvement, or retired but remain supportive:

- a. Provisional Reserve List (PRL)
- b. Standby Reserve List (SRL)
- c. Continual Retired List (CRL)

6-3: Provisional Reserve-Retired List:

Provide for individuals to maintain a general relationship without active participation being required. Individuals requesting such reassignment with approval must have 18 months of prior VDF service for transfer in-rank to the VDF reserve. A person assigned to Provisional Reserve status if reactivated will only be appointed to an available organization position and only at the rank assigned that position.

6-4: Standby Reserve-Retired List:

Provides special continued involvement on assigned VDF committee services and functions in case of an emergency without scheduled active training participation. These individuals share their experience in a helpful manner as needed by the Force in an advisory capacity. The requirement for SRL assignment is 48 months of active service in the Michigan Emergency Volunteers and/or Defense Force.

6-5: Continual Retired List:

Retired personnel who are fully retired without obligation are so assigned.

6-6: Reserve and Retired VDF Involvement:

All of the above may continue to serve as limited advisors, attend unit meetings and special and social events upon invitation and/or notice by the brigade or their area battalion commander. They may wear the VDF uniform in accordance with MI VDF 40 or AR 670-1 (to, at, from" VDF activities) if eligible and when requested to attend, or be involved in any of the above VDF activities.
